THE Unexpected

What To Expect . . .

We, the class of 1994, are unique and believe that it's okay to be different: our class reputation speaks for itself. We want to have fun and not have to take everything so serious. For these same reasons, we chose as our theme "Expect the Unexpected". When we entered Wachusett Regional High School as freshmen four years ago, we all had the same basic fears, goals, and ideas about our upcoming high school years. Now, as we're getting ready to leave as seniors, each of us is a distinct person with a different road ahead of us. In order for us to get to this point, we went through many unexpected but fun experiences that we'd like to share with others. As you look through our book, we hope to trigger memories of your years that show how much fun you had in high school.

Left: Ain't they cute? Is that Jessica Szeidler and Sara Dado?

Below: Beth Anderson and Meg Rayla stuck in the hall — don't be late for class!

Junior Prom 1993

The Junior Prom, "This is a Time to Remember," was held on May 8, 1993 at the Holiday Inn in Worcester. In keeping with our class theme of "Expect the Unexpected," something really unexpected happened that night — a senior, Tammy Provencal, was crowned queen of our Junior Prom!

Homecoming

Homecoming '93 was a terrific conclusion to four years of intensive float-building and spirit-building by the class of '94. Our theme of Aladdin was well-represented by genies, dancing girls, and pseudo-tigers. A great time was had by all who participated in the pep rally, poster-making, athletic events and the dance. It was a great way to spend an October weekend.

Right: Danielle Police, Leigh-Ann Steele, Laura Costello, and Jouni Harajuma help lead the senior float to victory.

Right: Dave Farabaugh glances towards that someone special he'd like to dance with next.

Below: Katie O'Brien, what exactly did Giles Christianson say to make you look so disgusted?

Above: Michele Pontbriand and Anne Harney together and always smiling.

Out-Of-Order

Q

What have we done to make your trip through the Senior section unexpected?

A

We've arranged the section in reverse alphabetical order. If you turned your photo in late, you follow the "A's". Also, there is one senior totally "out-of-order". (Hint: he's in the M's.)

Above: Christy Martin finds an unexpected bonus during last year's Winter Carnival weiner dunk competition.

The 1994 school year marks the end of the Wachusett teaching careers of seven members of the faculty. Together, their experience totals almost 190 years of teaching. Mr. Yonker leads the group with 37 years of experience, followed by Mrs. Williams (31 years), Mr. Genereux (28 years), Dr. Yaglou (25 years), Mr. Branche (24 years), Mrs. Reidy (22 years), and last, but not least; Mrs. Branche with 21 years of teaching. We wish them all the best of luck in their "retirement."

In Memory of Owen Jones
December 22, 1976 – May 8, 1994

When the doctors stop smiling
I get cold shivers down my spine.
I love my life, with all its faults.
Please God, please, give me a sign
To show me that, this life I've lived
Was not (so bleak!) for none,
And that the love, I've felt, for some
Can never be undone.
Now, to the rest, I love you all.
And never wish to leave,
Yet, if I do, untimely so,
Promise never, ever grieve.

By Owen Jones

Owen

Your journey has been long,
We watched you struggle for years,
You touched our hearts in many ways,
Yet we managed to hide our tears.

We saw your determination,
Your desire to finish school,
The only problem is that often . . .
Life, is very cruel.

Your fate dealt you sickness,
And a tiring battle ahead,
You managed to keep your chin up,
You refused to stay in bed.

You journeyed silent through the halls,
We could see your internal pain,
You tried to hide your fears inside,
You didn't want to spread the rain.

Your enthusiasm for your life,
Has inspired us all,
You've made us look and realize,
Our problems are quite small.

You've impacted on so many,
With your courage to survive,
Your desire to face each new day,
Your will to stay alive.

We're lucky you're in our family,
We want to thank you much,
You're a brave young man, Owen,
And it is you, who has been the 'teacher' to us.

Who's The Most Unexpected . . .

The Superlative section of the yearbook is based upon the results of a senior class poll. This enabled them to evaluate their peers by placing one male and female in a specific category in which they felt was appropriate. Then, after the ballots were collected and tallied, the chosen ones were notified. In order to keep with our theme, Expect the Unexpected, they were photographed in unusual, but fitting positions, as you will see on the following pages.

Power Officers and Advisors

The Class of 1994 selected their slate of officers in elections held in June of 1993. The winners were entrusted with the planning of many senior year activities, such as the Prom and Senior Banquet. We also hope that these officers will work to bring our class together through future reunions.

Right: President Chris Kazarian is so wrapped up in recycling that he tried to recycle himself.

FACULTY AND STAFF

IS THIS A PERFECT SQUARE?

Expect

TO

Below: Dr. P and Mr. T go over the facts about a student issue before taking action.

Above: Assistant Principal, Mr. Bernard H. Tremblay, at work in his office.

Right: Principal, Dr. Thomas G. Pandiscio, takes a "roll up your sleeves and begin to work" approach to administration.

Below: The man who wears two hats — Dean of Students and Social Studies Chairperson. Dr. David R. Tarkiainen.

Administration

The student body of Wachusett really didn't know what to "expect" when they returned to school in the Fall of '93. Former principal Hal Lane resigned in June to become a State Representative; and students were concerned about the "unexpected"!

Wachusett had little to fear when they saw who was now in charge. Dr. Thomas G. Pandiscio, who had been an assistant principal at the school for a number of years was appointed principal over the Summer. One of his first tasks was to hire his replacement. Eventually, the final choice was Mr. Timothy E. Wiblin, a Southerner who came to Massachusetts by way of Maine!

Another administrative change saw a temporary move in the 1992-1993 school year become permanent for 1993-1994. Dr. David R. Tarkiainen was named Dean of Students, a job he assumed in addition to his being the Social Studies department chairman. This new job enables Mr. T to have use of the P.A. in the mornings to play his music and tell his "jokes".

Even the Main Office took on a new look this year. Furniture was rearranged, and facilities were expanded to create an into the "2000's" look for the school.

Also, many departments were able to hire new faculty. Many of these hirees were young and recently graduated; they should be an asset to an already great school.

One of the major undertakings of the new school year was to acquaint each faculty and staff member with the new media center (library). Staff participated in several workshops and in-service courses in order to become more proficient in their ability to do research on a "machine".

And we can't forge that this was year we got a nine period day with a wave lunch. It was confusing in the beginning (especially with the new tones instead of bells), but like everything else in this world — we all got used to it fast!

Home Ec

The yearbook staff surveyed the faculty about things that we would find unexpected about them. Many people responded, and these were deemed by our distinguished staff to be the most "unexpected"!

Mr. T certainly gave us the most material to work with, among his specialties are stand-up comedy (in clubs as well as on the P.A.), playing the banjo, and his creation of the original Mountaineer logo. Madame Edelsberg did not graduate from high school. Mrs. Greene's hobby is flamenco dancing, Coach Jackson has a pet boa constrictor, and Mr. Farley is still a "surfin' " lifeguard after all these years! Mr. Corriveau was in the first group inducted into the Clark University Athletic Hall of Fame. Both Ms. Fournier and Mr. Ethier have famous relatives; Ms. Fournier's first cousin is a professional football player with the Philadelphia Eagles, and Mr. Ethier is the second cousin of Daniel Johnson, the current Prime Minister of Quebec. Mrs. Laverdiere's claim to fame was her college note-taking for Rick Pitino (Kentucky basketball coach) when he had away basketball games!

Above: Monitor Ruth Briggs supervises the In-House Suspension room.

Right: Information Services personnel Assistant Director, Chris Vavruska and Data Entry clerk, Susan Richard.

Above: Spanish teacher Cecy Greene wishes she were in Mexico City rather than grading papers.

Right: Technology education teacher, David Bianchi, uses the computer as a shop tool, how 90's!

Missing

The yearbook staff would like to apologize if you are part of the Wachusett family and wanted your photo taken for inclusion in the book. We had an extremely difficult time catching everyone this year. However, "out of sight is not out of mind" with us, so here's a listing of the missing in action.

Alternative education technician Brenda Court. Custodians Luis Baez, John Barry, Richard Bickford, Joseph Cahill, Kevin Daley, Steven McRell, Bruce Mercier,

Christopher Stimson, Joseph Strong, Demitrious Tasos, Russell Therrien and James Waire. English teachers Lee Ann Hedberg, Deborah O'Connor, Deborah Smith and Susanne Rubenstein (English/Foreign Language). Boys Varsity Soccer

A Great Season Capped By District Finals!

The Wachusett Regional High School Boys Soccer Team set out to achieve many "goals" this season, and they appear to have succeeded. Not only did they score goals on the field, but they worked as a team on meeting personal and team pre-season goals. Not only did they win the Mid-Wach League Division A title, but they were also seeded number one in District play. After two shutouts in the preliminary rounds of Districts, the team lost a close 1-0 battle with St. Johns for the District title. The team was captained by Jesse Fisette, Steve Groccia and Dan Nordberg.

The 1993 Wachusett Regional Girls' Soccer Team played each game with a lot of vigor this season. With only 6 seniors, the Mountaineers were a young team. However, with the addition of three solid freshmen, and some much improved junior varsity players, the girls became an exciting team to watch. Captain and senior All-Star Jennifer Langone missed almost the entire season with a stress fracture of the femur. However, she completed an outstanding Wachusett career with 16 goals and 14 assists to finish 5th in all-time scoring for Wachusett. Several players were named to the Mid-Wach All Star team, and they represented all classes: senior, Leigh Ann Steele; junior, Sara Courtemache; and sophomore, Molly Ahearn. All in all the season was a great rebuilding year with many strong performances from players who'll be returning next year.

Varsity Football

Thanksgiving Day Win Gives Mountaineers A Big Finish!

The Wachusett Football Team had five confidence-building victories during the 1993 season. Winning their opening game at home against St. Bernards, seemed to set the tone for the long weeks ahead of them. One of the team's biggest triumphs was when they defeated Leominster, a long-time rival and Central Mass power. The team held up well against the eventual Super Bowl winner and runner-up, North Middlesex and Fitchburg. One of the best games of the season was against Milford, when the Mountaineers decided to allow their fans to experience the mixture of nervousness and excitement they have during a game. They did this by taking the game into overtime and winning on a field goal. On Thanksgiving, the Mountaineers got to sit down to dinner with the "thanks" that they had won their last game against Holy Name. Ending the season with a 5-5 record and four consecutive wins on Wachusett turf, how could the seniors leave with anything less than pure satisfaction. Four of the players achieved Mid-Wach All-Star status; seniors Tyler Bradshaw (Captain), Larry Rettig and Evan McNamara; and junior. Matt "Choo Choo" Lane. Coach Mal Kelly and his staff of assistant coaches, Larry Sullivan, Jeff Lane, Pat Remington and Bill Porcaro are to be congratulated for a job well done.

Boys Cross Country

All-Star Performers Pace Cross Country To Successful Season

The Boys Cross Country Team has had some unexpected great performances this season. The major surprise was the defeat of long-held rival St. Johns in a close fought dual meet. They also placed second in the District meet, avenging their only two dual meet losses; Shrewsbury and Fitchburg. They continued to raise eyebrows when they finished tenth in the state meet which was the highest placing of a Central Mass team. Some key performances were Steven Hedlund (League Champion, League All-Star, District All-Star, T&G All-Star) Brian Henry (League All-Star), Ryan Thompson and Ben Mollica (District All-Star) who was an unexpected addition to the team and was a key scorer in the District meet. A great job, boys!

It's certainly been a great year for Wachusett's Girls Cross Country team! The female runners had some outstanding performances which captured them the District Championship, the Mid-Wach League Championship, and the Nashoba Invitational title. Katie Lynch and Abby Lorge put in some unexpected performances. Katie ran a superb race to place 9th in Districts — a key score; and Abby ran a fine race at the Nashoba Invitational, placing 2nd to eventual State Champion, Aimee Langevin, Christy Martin has another terrific year, winning the Mid-Wach League Individual title as well as setting several school records for cross country. Christy Martin and Kelly Hughes were named to the Mid-Wach, District and T&G All-Star teams: Abby Lorge was named to the Mid-Wach and District All-Stars; and Emily Audette was named a Mid-Wach All-Star. A Year Of Mixed-Up Deadlines

We Did It!

If we had a job that took up as many hours as we spent doing yearbook, then we'd be very rich at the end of this school year. But we are rich! We have gained so much from the experience of doing this book. As you have learned things from me, I've learned a lot more from you!

This has been an incredible year. Eight snowdays, all falling within our deadline schedule. Photo sessions cancelled due to snow. Events not happening until later in the year that we were counting on for earlier deadlines. We faced it all, and we came out of this with a feeling that we are capable of meeting just about any challenge that could be given to us. That's quite an accomplishment graduating from high school!

As a staff, you have worked together beautifully. I can't say enough about the underclass contingent. Junior, John Haven; and sophomores Kathy Donaldson, Kristina Harvey and Jessie Stevens. You have been so willing to do all the odd jobs. I hope you learned well so your book can be as good (or even, better) as this year's.

The senior helpers were involved throughout the year — we didn't see you on a regular basis, but you were always around to do a requested task. Thanks to Larry Rettig, Nikki Wiinikka, Dave Johnson, Stacey Trotter, Jaimie Krikorian, and assorted others who just wanted to help.

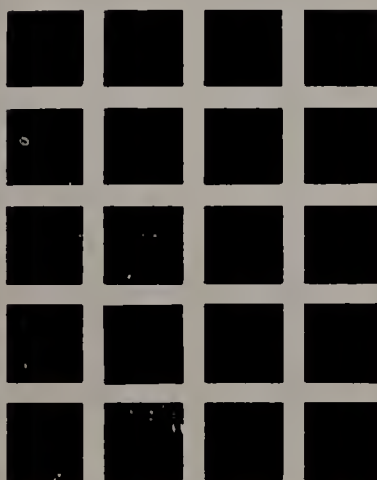

However, this book would not exist without the dedicated work and imaginations of the three seniors who stuck it out through the whole process. From the yearbook workshop in August of '93 to the "Hard Rock Cafe" business meeting in November; they were in this to the end. Allison Bingham, Michele Pontbriand and Jessica Salluce (notice, it's alphabetical order) have produced a lasting memory for the class of 1994. I hope your classmates thank you for what you've done as much as I do — they don't understand the countless hours of planning and work that goes into something of this magnitude. But I do, and they will too after a few more years. Thank you — it's been an experience!

Last Chance

Wachusett students perform "Help I'm Trapped In A High School!"

On Friday and Saturday evenings, December 3 and 4, 1993; the student body of Wachusett presented the play, "Help I'm Trapped In A High School" by Tim Kelly. The play was directed by Miss. Mary LeMay of the Foreign Language department. The producer/production manager was Social Studies teacher, Mrs. Sandra Nelson. The business manager was Mr. Michael Lambert, also of the Foreign Language department.

The play focused on a group of students who are accidentally placed in Public School Maximum Security, a school for problem students. The school is commonly called Last Chance High. At the school, we meet a wide variety of characters, including a principal who wears Army fatigues and carries a big stick. Most of the action centers on the efforts of the four students to have themselves transferred out of Last Chance.

The cast consisted of Maura Matlak, Allison Wilmot, Melina McTigue, Joe Tricomi, Katie Kenren, Jonathan Farr, Mike Oliver, Jeff Sherlin and David Toscano. Also in the cast were Bob Beck, Jennifer Ciaffone, Colleen Donovan, Jessica Hart, Ryan Curtis, Tom Johnson, Jami Byrne, Matt Piekos, Tricia Berberian and Tara McRae. Also Allison McGuirk, Amanda Lasher, Sarah O'Connor, Michael Cocozzella, Tom Innis, Shawn Scott, Michelle Sheppard, Michael Toscano and Yuisa Perez. And Cassie Perry, Melissa Stine, C. Bradley Daniel, Lisa Powell, Michael Oliver, Lauren Sawyer, Tara O'Keefe, Lisa Shell and Erica Sears.

Many other students and faculty aided the production in a variety of areas.

Wachusett Reaches Out To The World Through Mardi Gras And International Week

WRHS Speaks Out!

Wachusett Regional took on an international look during the months of February and March this year. Just prior to February vacation (and the start of Lent), the International Club sponsored a Mardi Gras during Activity Period. Many underclassmen were attracted to this event, and participated in a variety of ways — mask-making, costumes, and entertaining fellow students.

During these months, the school was visited by a contingent of students from Costa Rica. Several Wachusett students will visit their country in April.

During the week of March 7-11, the Foreign Language department sponsored International Week. Several guest speakers, movies, and activities were available daily. Students and teachers from other classes (besides language) were welcome to attend. The high point of the week's festivities was the International Night Competition on Tuesday, March 8. Skits and acts were presented by students in Spanish, French, German and Latin classes; with prizes being given to the winning groups.

Other events sponsored by the Foreign Language department include a French Exchange program, and testing of various skill levels of foreign language performance.

Serving Up a Good Time!

On Friday, March 18 & 19, 1994, many Wachusett students formed teams and played volleyball for 19 hours. Each participant had to present a Pledge Sheet with a minimum of thirty dollars in pledges. The proceeds of this activity went towards the funding of extra-curricular activities and interscholastic athletics at Wachusett Regional High School.

Unexpected Changes!

On the next six pages, we'll show you disasters and victories. We'll inform you of current issues in entertainment and politics. Just to show you that Wachusett seniors are aware of the world around them, we'll present the results of the Best and Worst survey.

Tuesday, February 1, 1994, the Wachusett region suffered a tragic loss. Police Chief Robert Mortell of Paxton, was shot in the line of duty while answering a house break call in Holden. He left behind his wife, Pamela, and his children, Amy, Erin, and Elliot. This event thrust the Wachusett region into the national limelight and shocked many because for so long everyone thought that only big cities suffered such disasters.

The AIDS virus continues to spread. The Center For Disease Control and Prevention estimates that there will be 40,000 to 80,000 new HIV infections in the United States this year. President Clinton has appointed Kristine Gebbie as his AIDS policy coordinator, also called the AIDS czar, to oversee government AIDS programs.

Nos Voyages En France

This year, Wachusett Regional's annual French Exchange Program included 7 juniors and 2 seniors; and our chaperone, Madame "Jenny" Keeler. Our 3-week trip began with our stay in Saint Nazaire, a city on the northwest coast where we experienced French culture by living with French families for two weeks and three days. We had a great time visiting French classes in their sprawling open campus school, sipping monaco in French cafés and dancing the night away in an underground dance club. But time passed quickly and soon we were on the TGV (Train à Grand Vitesse) to Paris. There, we saw all the famous sights — the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, the Louvre, Versailles; as well as numerous other popular tourist attractions. The weather was perfect — 50-60° on the average. But the fun and good weather did not last; we sadly found ourselves on a plane back to Boston. Many of us returned home physically exhausted, but refreshed from our exposure to the interesting and exciting French culture.

De Boston à Saint-Nazaire . . .

A l'occasion du 5^e échange entre Saint-Nazaire et Boston, neuf élèves américains de 16-17 ans ont été conviés à l'hôtel de ville en compagnie de leurs correspondants français du lycée Aristide-Briand. Accueillis dans des familles nazairiennes depuis le 17 février, les jeunes Américains, qui apprennent le français depuis cinq ans, découvrent la région et la culture française. Ils termineront leur séjour par la visite de Paris, début mars, avec leur professeur, Jennifer Keeler. En avril, 12 élèves du lycée Briand partiront à la découverte de l'« American way of life ».

THE Unexpected

Colophon:

The "Mountaineer" is an annual publication by the Yearbook Staff at Wachusett Regional High School, 1401 Main Street, Holden, Massachusetts 01520. The towns served by the high school are Holden, Paxton, Princeton, Rutland and Sterling. The book was distributed to the class of 1994 at a class barbecue held in mid-August, 1994.

The book was printed in Winston-Salem, North Carolina at the Jostens/Hunter Publishing Division. The press run was 525 copies. The staff was assisted in the design of the cover, endsheets, division and title pages by Rick Brooks of the Creative Resources Department of Jostens, and by our company representative, Arnie Lolmann. Much of the pre-planning of the cover, theme and other sections was done as part of an in-house workshop held in August of 1993.

Our cover is a school-designed truelife lithograph. The base material cover is white (#478) with the addition of numerous mix-to-match inks. The litho-process cover has film lamination for protection. The front cover also has an iridescent foil stamp (#333) for the theme phrase. The trim size is 8½ by 11, and is Smythe-sewn. It is wrapped around 120-point binder's board. The program the book follows is the Majestic program.

The endsheets of the book are different for the front and back. Both are from the Contemporary paper line and are parchment (#303). The endsheets were printed using a T.349 (Forest Green) ink.

The paper used throughout the book was 80-pound gloss, printed with standard black ink. Sixteen pages were printed using the standard four-color process. This color must be submitted five months prior to publication to be most cost-effective. Original artwork, submitted by students, was finished by Jostens/Hunter. The primary type style was Baskerville (#195). Palatino (#141) was also used extensively throughout the book. Additional type styles were used for variety, and to meet the needs of the page editor.

Candid photographs were taken by students (both on and off the staff). Senior portraits were taken by Ken Parker and his associates at Photography By Ken Parker of Holden, the designated official yearbook photographer. Other professional photographers did some of the senior portraits. Athletics (both team and candid), clubs and organizations, underclassmen group photos and other major school events were photographed at no charge to the yearbook by Photography By Ken Parker. In addition, the studio provided black-and-white film and developing at no additional cost. Current events photos were provided by RM Photo Service, Inc. in exchange for a publication rights fee.

The approximate cost of printing the book is $26,000.00. The figure includes publishing costs, freight charges, shipment of materials to North Carolina, candid photography expenses (purchase of color film and developing), and other supplies. The per copy cost of the book is $25.00. Other monies are raised through an assessment to the Senior Class, a parent ad and sponsor/patron solicitation campaign, and the proceeds from three soda machines in the school. The book contains no commercial advertising; and its 256 pages represent the entire study body.
